

Permutations of on board notations in line with the ICC recommendation paper for on board notations.

GENERAL NOTE:

1. The words “on board” appearing in the following examples also include “shipped on board”, “clean on board”, loaded on board”, laden on board”, and words of similar effect.
2. Superimposed/notations are shown in blue and critical data (whether superimposed/notation or pre-printed) is shown in red.

Permutations of on board notations to be examined under UCP 600 article 19

NOTE: The following set of circumstances do not include “Received” transport documents as they are deemed to be covered by ones labeled ‘Taken in charge’.

ON BOARD
(Date)

Place & Date of Issue: City, Date

Comment:

As the first leg of the journey is by sea (as required by the credit), a dated on board notation is required. The date of the on board notation will be deemed to be the date of shipment.

Where a pre-printed 'Shipped on board' transport document is presented, an on board notation is not required and the date of issuance will be deemed to be the date of shipment.

Place & Date of Issue: City, Date

Comment:

As the first leg of the journey is by sea (as required by the credit), an on board notation is required indicating the date, the port of loading as required by the credit and the vessel name. The date of the on board notation will be deemed to be the date of shipment.

The above on board notation is also required in case the transport document is pre-printed 'Shipped on board'.

ON BOARD Confirmation Star    OR    ON BOARD Acceptance Moon
AT NEW YORK (Date)                      AT SAVANNAH (Date)

Place & Date of Issue: City, Date

Comment:

In case of a pre-printed 'shipped on board' transport document either of the above on board notations is also required. The date of the on board notation will be deemed to be the date of shipment. It would be in the interests of the beneficiary to ensure that the on board notation was in respect of the vessel Confirmation Star.

(Surrender clause)

Place & Date of issue: City, Date

Comment:

As the credit requires shipment from France i.e., allowing shipment from an inland point or port, no separate on board notation is required. In this case, the date of issuance will be deemed to be the date of shipment.

Comment:

Due to the fact that the first leg of the journey is an inland point (as required by the credit) the reference to 'intended' vessel is acceptable under sub-article 19 (a) (iii) (b). The date of issuance will be deemed to be the date of shipment. This is applicable also in case of a 'Taken in charge' or 'Received for shipment' transport document.
